Auction Rules

Live Auction

The live auction begins at 7:40 p.m. Items will be given to the winning bidders after payment at the checkout in the coffee shop.

Silent Auction

Silent auction items are open for bidding at 6:00 p.m. Each silent auction item has a starting bid and minimum increments. Bids made in less than the minimum increment will be disqualified.

Bidding on the silent auction items will close in three sections, as announced by the master of ceremonies at approximately 6:45, 7:00, 7:15 p.m. The winning bid will be circled and initialed after the close of the silent auction. The winning bidder must report to the cashier's room with the bid sheet and pay for the item, then return with a receipt before the item may be taken from the auction table. The cashier's room will open at approximately 7:45 p.m..

Payments

All sales are final and payment on February 4, 2012 is mandatory except for those items exceeding $10,000. Financial arrangements for items over $10,000 will be made in the cashier's room before the close of the evening. Payment may be made by cash, check (payable to St. Joseph's Art & Wine), VISA, or MasterCard. Winning bidders are asked to be patient with the checkout process as it ensures the greatest accuracy in record keeping.

Exclusion of Liability

St. Joseph's and the Art & Wine Committee (hereinafter Committee), offers these auction items in good faith and pursuant to the descriptions provided to us by each donor. Every effort is made to present an accurate and comprehensive description of the item. All sales are final and each item is sold "As Is," without warranty of any kind including fitness for a particular purpose. There will be no exchanges or refunds. No statement during the auction shall be deemed to be a warranty, guarantee, representation or assumption of liability by St. Joseph's or the Committee. As part of the consideration for all items purchased in the auction, a successful bidder agrees to hold St. Joseph's and the Committee harmless from any claims for liability including any loss, injury or damage to any person or property arising from use of an auction item.

Tax Deductibility

According to IRS regulations, only the amount of the purchase price which exceeds the fair market value of your purchase is tax deductible. Values stated on the receipts are estimates only and must be validated for IRS purposes. The Art & Wine Committee can provide guidance on how to determine fair market values, however, the research and final determination of the tax deductible amount is the responsibility of the winning bidder.

"Forsaken"

This inspiring and powerful depiction of Christ was originally created in 1994. The charcoal drawing was created over a collage of hand selected newspaper clippings that brought out the true message of sacrifice. This artwork is reproduced as a limited edition giclée print that is signed and numbered by the artist (#10/750). All materials including the framing, glass and matte are of archival/museum quality. This artwork is also protected and registered with the Fine Art Registry™ using a unique FAR® ID Tag (#19022). These tags are designed to be tamper-evident which means that any attempt to remove the tag will result in visual evidence that undesired tampering has occurred. Overall framed dimensions are 31.5" x 34.5" x 1.5".

Item No: L15 Principal for the Day

Send your child to the principal's office – for a good cause. Your child will step into Mr. LeCompte's shoes for one school day, complete with his or her own official red necktie. The "principal" can declare a non-uniform dress day for the entire school. He or she will begin the day by making the morning announcements on the P.A. system, followed by a drink from Holy Grounds Café. Your student will make the rounds with Mr. LeCompte, checking in on SJS classes. For lunch, the "principal" will dine on Pizza Hut pizzas with his or her class, and maybe the class can talk the principal into a few extra minutes of recess. In the afternoon, the "principal" might need to check in on the progress of the new school building. At the end of the day, bid farewell to SJS students, and treat yourself to a dessert from Dairy Queen for a job well done. The date will be determined by Mr. LeCompte and will be before the end of this school year.

Birches in Motion

One of John Clement's newest prints that was taken last fall, this beautiful picture was created on a trip to the White River Valley west of Lake Wenatchee. Mr. Clement wanted the trees to look more like an abstract painting so he put the camera in motion and shot multiple exposures to create the desired effect. Then he combined all the images into one piece to create "Birches in Motion" which measures 23"x30".
